Rate this post Used it in conjunction with a MacBook 12" touch bar & an iOS device to learn how to use it with a Mac (not easy). This App will add an additional calculator button onto the Mac Calculator window for Ease of use. Note: It's not 100% perfect, but it's a step in the right direction. Some very small bugs that need to be fix by the developer(s). When creating a new Button on the mac you would want to drag it onto the "Calculator" button from the "Toolbar" button group. This will create it on the menu bar for you. After dragging it on the button you can select the function for the button you want to have. It's up to you what function it should show up under. Default is the "Calculator" tab but if you try to add a button with the "Operator" tab selected you get stuck. You can use the button by clicking on it, it will take you to the Calculator window. There are some bugs that need to be worked out. The font color needs to be changed from Blue to Orange and the space between the buttons needs to be made a little larger. Other than that it's a good start. It's free and the update will be free also (but that is not confirmed right now). The only complaint that I have is that it won't open Photoshop Document files
